

Collaborative Climate Action Program for MIT Staff Summer 2024

Voluntary program in partnership with the MIT Working Green Committee

Weekly email with action steps delivered to 148 subscribers from 60 DLCs (Avg. open rate 44%)

Weekly community check-in on zoom, attended by 25 active participants

Program Goals:

- Build a community for for staff
- Create a learning environment
- Explore a range of actions
- Use tools available to us now
- Unite individual efforts
- Amplify impact of local efforts
- Leverage collective purchasing power
- Share promising practices

Interactive MIT Climate Action Workshops at Department Staff Meetings

Sept-Oct 2024

BE, Physics, DMSE, Math

90 DLCI staff members have participated so far

Nov: MechE

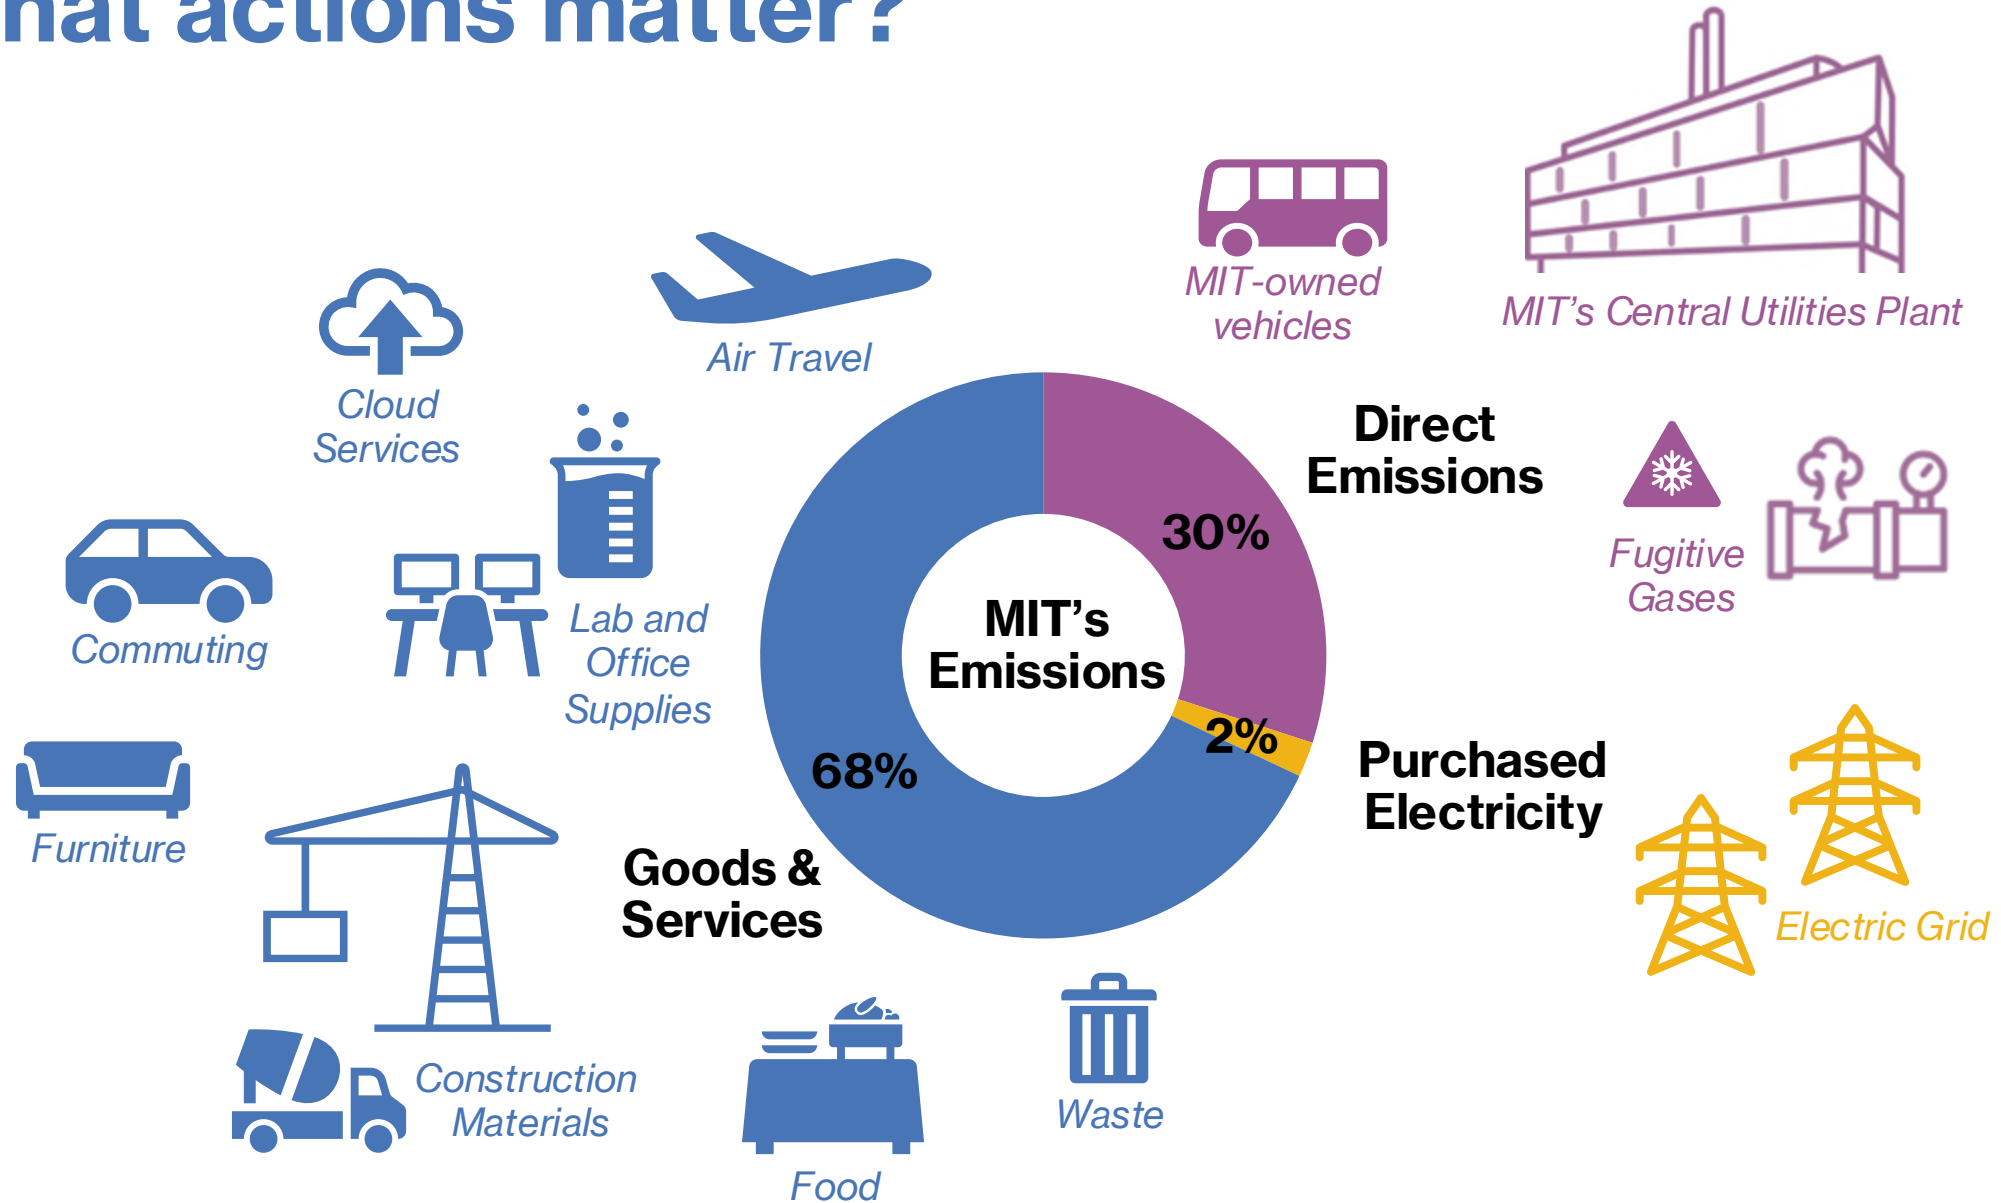

Email: c2ap-admins@mit.edu to sign your department up!

Communicating Campus Climate Commitments, and Highlighting Opportunities for DLCIs

What actions matter?

campus climate action

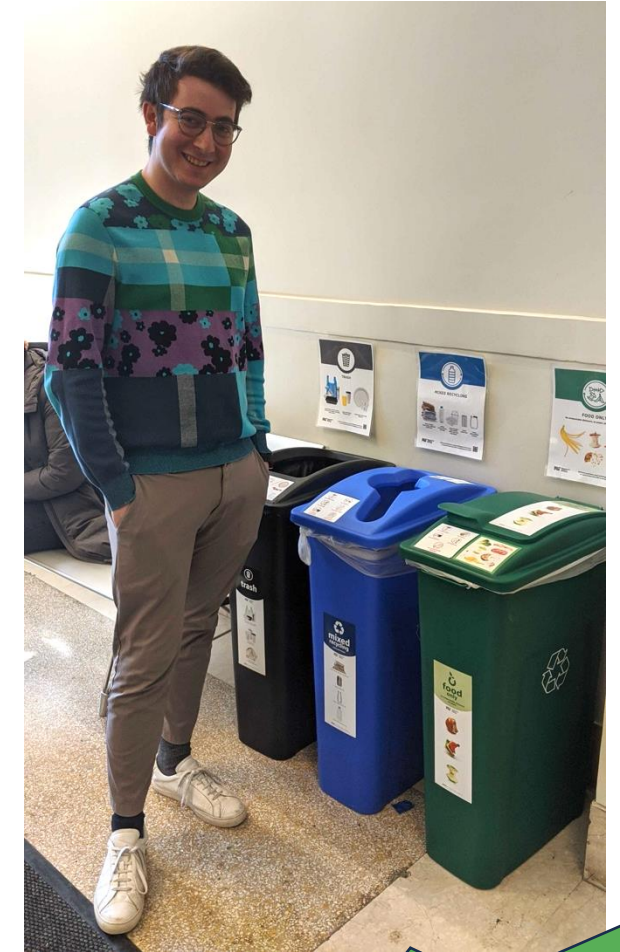

ambassador

Program Goal: Equip members of the MIT community to champion climate action and sustainable practices within their DLCs, increasing visibility and fostering a culture of sustainability across campus.

Program Requirements:

1. Participate in an MIT Climate Action Workshop
2. Complete the Responsible Waste Training in Atlas
3. Sign up and start using Rheaply
4. Integrate climate action goal(s) in Goal Setting and Performance Review Process
5. Lead climate action initiative(s) in DLCI

More Details
Coming Soon!