Websites that highlight and support MIT's international engagements

The screenshot shows the MIT Global website homepage. The header includes the text "GLOBAL MIT" on the left and navigation links for "About", "Our Programs", "How to Engage", "News & Stories", and "Contact" in the center. On the right, there are links for "English", "Search", and the MIT logo. The main content area features the headline "Advancing knowledge. Educating students. Innovating to serve the nation and the world." followed by a link to <https://global.mit.edu/>. Below this, there is a section titled "OUR PROGRAMS" with a brief description of MIT's international focus and a "PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS" link. A large graphic of a globe is positioned on the right side of the page.

The screenshot shows the MIT Global Support Resources (GSR) website. The header includes "MIT GLOBAL SUPPORT RESOURCES" on the left and "Search" and the MIT logo on the right. A left-hand navigation menu lists categories such as "Travel & safety abroad", "Project planning", "Managing project risk", "HR, finance & admin", "About", and "Contact", each with a plus sign. Below the menu is a "JUMP STARTS" dropdown. The main content area features the headline "Start smart on international engagements" and a paragraph explaining the GSR's role. A secondary section titled "Elevated-risk project review process" includes a circular image of various national flags and a "LEARN MORE" link. A globe graphic is visible on the right side of the page.
